Attorneys for Plaintiff
AVAGO TECHNOLOGIES GENERAL IP (SINGAPORE) PTE. LTD.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

AVAGO TECHNOLOGIES GENERAL IP
(SINGAPORE) PTE. LTD.,

Plaintiff,

v.

ASUSTEK COMPUTER INC. and ASUS
COMPUTER INTERNATIONAL,

Defendants.

Case No. 15-cv-04525-EMC

REQUEST FOR INTERNATIONAL JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE
(LETTER ROGATORY)

1 TO THE APPROPRIATE JUDICIAL AUTHORITY OF TAIWAN:

2 The United States District Court for the Northern District of California presents its
3 compliments to the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan, and requests international assistance
4 to obtain evidence to be used in a civil proceeding before this Court in the above-captioned matter.

5 The Court requests the assistance described herein in the interests of justice.

6 I. REQUEST

7 The Court requests that the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan compel production of 8 documents from the following corporate entity:

9 Inpaq Technology Company

10 No. 11 Ke-Yi Street

11 Chunan, Miaoli, 35059, Taiwan

12 Specifically, the Court requests that Inpaq Technology Company (“Inpaq”) produce the 13 documents and things set out in Exhibit A to this Request.

14 The Court further requests that the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan compel Inpaq
15 to provide testimony as to the topics set forth in Exhibit B to this Request. With respect to 16 methods and procedures to be followed in connection with the requested deposition, the Court
17 respectfully requests that, to the extent possible under Taiwanese law: (a) Inpaq be required to 18 designate one or more officers, directors, or managing agents, or other person(s) who consent to 19 testify on its behalf as to the topics set forth in Exhibit B; (b) an appropriate judicial officer of 20 Taiwan direct that the Inpaq witness(es) be duly sworn in accordance with the applicable laws and 21 procedures of Taiwan; (c) the examination be conducted orally; (d) the parties’ legal 22 representatives, their interpreters, and a stenographer be permitted to be present during the 23 examination; and (e) the stenographer be permitted to record verbatim the examination, and a full
24 transcript of the examination, in translation from Mandarin Chinese to English through a qualified
25 interpreter, be made at the time of the examination.

26 The Court understands that the documents and information requested may be of a
27 confidential nature. As such, there is an protective order in this case to protect the confidentiality
28 of any documents produced and of any responses to the written questions. A copy of the

1 protective order is attached hereto as Exhibit C. The parties in the above-captioned matter may
2 negotiate a more-detailed protective order. If the Court enters a new order, it will be sent
3 separately.

4 II. FACTS

5 Plaintiff Avago Technologies General IP (Singapore) PTE. Ltd. (“Avago”) filed suit
6 against Defendants ASUSTeK Computer Inc. and ASUS Computer International (collectively
7 “ASUS”) in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, seeking a judgment
8 that ASUS infringes U.S. Patent Nos. 5,670,730, 5,870,087, 5,982,830, 6,188,835, 6,430,148,
9 6,744,387, and 6,982,663 (collectively, the “Asserted Patents”). On September 25, 2015, the case
10 was transferred to the Northern District of California. Avago seeks an award of damages from 11 ASUS to compensate for the alleged patent infringement. The technology described and claimed
12 in the Asserted Patents relates to, among other things: decoding electronic video and/or audio files
13 (e.g., MPEG); storing audio files (e.g., MP3) on an integrated circuit chip; reading data from an
14 optical disc (e.g., DVD or Blu-ray disc); and use of or compatibility with the IEEE 802.11 wireless 15 standard.

16 Through its investigation, Avago has determined that Inpaq makes components that are 17 used in the allegedly infringing devices made and sold by ASUS. Thus, it appears that Inpaq
18 possesses information of relevance to Avago’s claims of infringement in this patent litigation.

19 III. EVIDENCE

20 The documents requested to be produced are identified in Exhibit A. The deposition
21 topics to which Inpaq’s testimony is requested are set forth in Exhibit B.

22 IV. OFFER OF RECIPROCAL ASSISTANCE

23 The United States District Court for the Northern District of California is willing to provide 24 similar assistance to the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan. See 28 U.S.C. § 1782.

25 V. REIMBURSEMENT FOR COSTS

26 Avago’s counsel is willing to reimburse the Appropriate Judicial Authority of Taiwan for 27 costs and expenses incurred in executing this Letter Rogatory.

DEFINITIONS AND INSTRUCTIONS

DEFINITIONS

1. “Inpaq,” “You,” “you,” “Your,” or “your” shall mean and refer to Inpaq Technology Company and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, parents and affiliates thereof, past or present, joint ventures, and other legal entities that are or were wholly or partially owned or controlled by Inpaq, either directly or indirectly, and all past or present directors, officers, owners, agents, attorneys, and others acting for or on behalf of these same entities.

2. “Defendants” shall mean and refer to Defendants ASUSTeK Computer Inc. and ASUS Computer International, and all predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, divisions, parents, and affiliates thereof, past or present, joint ventures, and other legal entities that are or were wholly owned or controlled by Defendants, either directly or indirectly, and all past or present directors, officers, owners, employees, agents, representatives, consultants, attorneys, and others acting for or on behalf of these same entities.

3. “Plaintiff” or “Avago” shall mean and refer to Avago Technologies General IP (Singapore) Pte. Ltd., its officers, directors, employees, partners, corporate parent, subsidiaries, or affiliates, and any persons or entities who are, or at any time to which the Letter Rogatory relates were acting on behalf of Avago.

4. The “’730 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 5,670,730.

5. The “’087 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 5,870,087.

6. The “’835 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 6,188,835.

7. The “’148 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 6,430,148.

8. The “’663 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 6,982,663.

9. The “’387 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 6,744,387.

10. The “’830 patent” means U.S. Patent No. 5,982,830.

11. The term “Patents-in-Suit” means and refers to, individually and collectively, the ’730, ’087, ’835, ’148, ’663, ’387, and ’830 patents, as defined herein.

12. The term “WiFi Component(s)” or “Component(s)” means any product, system, software, or method, in whole or in part, that complies with, is compatible with, or implements any part of any version of 802.11 standard, including without limitation Clause 18 (titled “Orthogonal frequency division multiplexing (OFDM) PHY specification”).

13. “Accused Product(s)” means any activity, product, process, method, system, apparatus, or thing made, used, sold, or offered for sale by Defendants or imported into the United States by Defendants that infringes one or more claims of the Patents-in-Suit, including, without limitation, ASUS Model Nos. T100TAF, GS751JM, M11BB-B07, X102BA, and/or TF701T. “Accused Product(s)” includes but is not limited to Defendants’ products containing Components.

14. “Source Code” means computer source and/or object code (e.g., RTL, HDL, VHDL, Verilog, etc.), whether in printed or electronic form.

15. The term “Litigation” means the patent infringement case entitled LSI Corp., et al. v. Funai Electric Co., Ltd., et al., Case No. 15-cv-04307-EMC pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.

17. The term “document” refers to documents and electronically stored information—including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, sound recordings, images, and other data or data compilations—stored in any medium from which information can be obtained, and includes all preliminary and final drafts of any such item.

18. The term “all documents” means any and all documents that Inpaq can locate through a diligent search of all locations likely to contain the documents requested herein and through a reasonable inquiry of all persons likely to know of the existence of the documents requested herein.

19. “Concerning” means regarding, relating to, concerning, pertaining to, referring to, describing, discussing, reflecting, stating, mentioning, comprising, containing, including, summarizing, explaining, providing context to, commenting upon, embodying, showing, demonstrating, evidencing, constituting, consisting of, supporting, contradicting, resulting from, or to be in any way logically or factually connected with the matter specified.

20. The terms “and,” “or,” and “and/or” shall be construed conjunctively or disjunctively, whichever maximizes the scope of the document request, and shall not be interpreted to limit the scope of these requests.

21. The terms “any” and “all” mean “any and all.”

22. The terms “each” and “every” mean “each and every.”

23. The use of a verb in any tense shall be construed as the use of the verb in all other tenses.

24. The singular form of any word shall be construed to include the plural. The plural form of any word shall be construed to include the singular.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In responding to the following document requests, furnish all available documents in the possession, custody, or control of Inpaq.

2. If you lack the ability to comply with a particular document request, specify whether the inability to comply is because the particular document or category of documents requested never existed; has been destroyed; has been lost or misplaced; has been stolen; or has never been or is no longer in your possession, custody, or control. If the particular document or category of documents is no longer in your possession, custody, or control, identify the name and address of any person or entity known or believed by you to have possession, custody, or control of that document or category of documents.

3. If you contend a particular document or category of documents contains trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, please mark the document or documents as such, as required by the protective order attached to this Letter Rogatory as Exhibit C.

DOCUMENT REQUESTS

2 1. Documents sufficient to identify each of Your products or Components sold or
3 otherwise provided to Defendants (including those products or Components sold or otherwise
4 provided to any entities participating in the design, manufacture, assembly, or testing of any product
5 of Defendants) into any product of Defendants since 2009.

6 2. For each of Your products or Components identified in response to Request No. 1,
7 documents sufficient to identify the product name, model and revision number, and product family.

8 3. For each of Your products or Components identified in response to Request No. 1,
